

NSS unit observed Deworming day in our college. On the occasion an awareness session was conducted. Dr. V. Saleem Basha, Principal briefed the students about the risk factors and prevention and control of worm infestation stressing on the importance of hand hygiene. Around 130 students took part actively during the session.

