

World Water day was observed in our college, Dr. V. Saleem Basha addressed the student gathering about the importance and how to save and Water. All staff and students participated in this program.

