DISSERTATION WORK

Title: Inculcating the Reading Habits Of Secondary School Students (8th, 9th And 10th Standard): The Differences Among SRSM ZPH School Mandasa (Govt.) And Vivekanandavidhya Nikethan High School (Private) Students: A User Study

Summary: The study was conducted in SRSM School and VVN School which is in the rural area falling under Mandasa Mandal , Srikakulam district. A comprehensive questionnaire was used for the data collection from secondary school students (8th to 10th standard). The study identified that the reading habits and interests of students at the basic level is different from the tertiary level and majority of the students regarded reading as an academic activity. It is recommended that the government and other stakeholders consider establishing fully stocked community libraries, to facilitate improvement in the reading habits of students in both government and private schools.
